

2017 LENTEN PREACHERS

March 1-3 | The Rev. Michael A. Renninger is the pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Richmond. He travels throughout the country giving presentations on spirituality, liturgy, music, and sacramental theology.

March 6,9,10 | The Rev. Dr. Valerie Carter is the Executive Director & Treasurer of the Women's Missionary Union of Virginia. She is called to inspire others to be involved in missions at home and around the world.

March 7-8 | Bishop Will Willimon is a widely-known speaker and author of over 70 books, most recently Who Lynched Willie Earl? Preaching to Confront Racism. He is Professor of the Practice of Christian Ministry at Duke Divinity School and a retired United Methodist Bishop.

March 13-17 | The Rev. Dr. John Kinney is Dean of the Samuel DeWitt Proctor School of Theology at Virginia Union University and pastor at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Beaverdam, Virginia.

March 14 | The Rev. Melanie Mullen is the Downtown Missioner at St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

March 20-24 | The Rev. MaryAnn McKibben Dana is a writer, pastor, and speaker living in Virginia. She is author of Sabbath in the Suburbs and the forthcoming Improvising with God.

March 27-31 | The Rev. Dr. James Green Somerville is the Senior Pastor of Richmond's First Baptist Church. Jim is a gifted preacher known for his remarkable gift of storytelling through which he teaches spiritual and life truths.

April 3-7 | The Rev. Carla Pratt Keyes is the pastor of Ginter Park Presbyterian Church in Richmond, a congregation whose commitment to working for reconciliation has inspired Carla's commitment to this series.

PREACHING

Please join us for Be Reconciled, St. Paul's 2017 Community Lenten Series, which features notable preachers throughout the week during Lent. Each 30-minute service begins at 12:30 p.m. There is no charge to hear the preacher.

LUNCHES & TAKEOUT

Over 300 volunteers from more than 50 area churches serve a homemade seated lunch in Scott Hall at 11:45 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. A hot or cold plate is offered for $8. Desserts are available for $2 (or $3 à la mode). Takeout orders are available from 11:45 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

RESERVATIONS

Reservations for groups of five or more may be made by calling 804-643-3589. Please call by 10:30 a.m. on the day you wish to attend.

GRANT RECIPIENTS

100% of the proceeds from lunch sales are awarded to non-profit organizations through a grant proposal process. The selection committee prioritizes local and regional organizations whose work benefits at-risk children, persons with mental health concerns, those in a state of homelessness, and seniors in need. For more information on the grant application process, visit stpaulsrva.org/lent.

PARKING

St. Paul's is located downtown at 815 E. Grace Street, across from the Capitol. We offer limited, free parking in the St. Paul's Garage (enter on 8th Street between Grace & Franklin).

LUNCHES

Lunch served at 11:45 a.m. & 1:00 p.m. in Scott Hall

Takeout available from 11:45 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Before and after each service, St. Paul's offers a reasonably priced, freshly-cooked meal in Scott Hall. Most days, lunchgoers enjoy live piano music. Take-out and frozen entrées are also available. Some guests choose not to attend services, but to enjoy a good meal served in a welcoming and informal setting. St. Paul's famous cheese soufflé is served every Wednesday, and crab cakes are served every Friday. 100% of the proceeds from Lenten Lunches and the art auction will be distributed to non-profit organizations. (Please note: menu below subject to change; updates posted at stpaulsrva.org/lent)
